RE: Level 1 Coaching Course hosted by Swimming South Africa

Swimming South Africa will be hosting a level 1 coaching course based on the new level 1 SSA coaching material. The training is geared at coaches who want an SSA level 1 coaching qualification, facilitators who have the old level 1 coaching qualification and teachers wanting to go into coaching.

The Criteria is as follows:

- SSA valid LTS certificate
- Minimum of four years' experience as a teacher
- SSA facilitator & LTS certificate (Provinces are encouraged to forward names of qualified facilitators so that they can come back and present level 1 coaching courses based on the new material.)
- Updated First Aid certificate
- Updated Police Clearance certificate
- Registered with their Provincial Affiliate

This is in line with SSA education & Training plans to further develop Aquatics by empowering teachers and coaches in accordance with the SSA Qualification framework for Aquatics (i.e. swimming, diving, Water polo Synchronised swimming and all other complementing learning programmes).

The course will cost R1 600 per and candidates would have to cover their travel and accommodation if they reside outside Gauteng.

The course outline and the programme will be forwarded by the 5th February 2014

The workshop outline is as follows:

Duration: 3 days

Date: 10-12 February 2015

Venue: Swimming South Africa Training Room, Doornfontein, Johannesburg

All the above documents including copies of qualifications, comprehensive CV highlighting achievements in the world of aquatics, ID copy and proof of payment must be e-mailed to accreditation@swimsa.co.za and lebo@swimsa.co.za by the 4th February 2015. All original copies must be brought to the office on the first day of the course. Note no candidate will be allowed to sit on the course without the necessary documents.

Yours sincerely,
